

Changes in the Agrial executive team

Michel Mariette, Chief Communication Officer (CCO), has decided to retire. Sarah Deysine has been appointed Chief Communication Officer (CCO) and Corporate Project Officer, effective 1 April 2018.

Michel Mariette, an agricultural engineer, began working at the French Foreign Trade Center and spent most of his career in the agrifood industry, in particular in the SOCOPA Group. He joined the Agrial Group in January 2012. The Agrial teams wish him all the best for his new adventure and are grateful for all his efforts over the past few years.

After graduated from Sciences Po Paris and HEC Paris, Sarah Deysine worked as Deputy Chief of Staff at the Caen Mayor's office. She came to Agrial's Innovation, Research & Development Department in October 2016 before moving to the Communication and Institutional Relations Department in summer 2017 as Deputy Director.

Ms Deysine is responsible for creating and coordinating Agrial's communication strategy as well as overseeing the Group's governance and public relations. She is also in charge of coordinating the "Horizon 2025" corporate project being rolled out across all Agrial divisions since May 2017.

AGRIAL IN BRIEF

Agrial is a farming and food cooperative that supports its farming members every day, processing and selling their productions in the dairy, fresh vegetables and fruit, beverages and meat sectors. Together, its 13,000 members and 20,000 employees embody a supportive and efficient model, faithful to its history and culture. In 2016, the Group generated 5.2 billion euros in turnover.
